

Year 4 Knowledge Organiser: What's The Time?

Key Facts

- To say the time, on the hour, use il est, followed by the number of the hour and then heure(s), e.g. Il est une heure, Il est six heures.
- To say the time, half past, use il est, followed by the number of the hour, then heure(s) and add et demie (and half), e.g. Il est une heure et demie, Il est six heures et demie.
- To say the time, quarter past, use il est, followed by the number of the hour, then heure(s) and add et quart (and quarter), e.g. Il est une heure et quart, Il est six heures et quart.
- To say the time, quarter to, use il est followed by the number of the hour it will be next, then heure(s) and add moins le quart (minus a quarter), e.g. Il est une heure moins le quart, Il est sept heures moins le quart.
- An alternative way is to simply put the number of minutes after the hour: e.g. Une heure et demie – une heure trente. Six heures et quart – six heures quinze. Sept heures moins le quart – six heures quarante cinq.
